

Alexander H. Platt

Managing Director, Projects International

Title Executive Vice President, PI Founders Stake Seed Capital Fund I, LLC

Alexander H. Platt has had a thirty-year career in law, business and public service.

During the Reagan Administration, Mr. Platt served as Director of International Economic Affairs on the staff of the National Security Council and Associate General Counsel in the Office of the United States Trade Representative. From 1988 to 1989, he was General Counsel of the National Economic Commission, a bipartisan body established by Congress to examine ways to reduce the federal budget deficit. From 1980 to 1981, Mr. Platt served as a law clerk to Judge Leonard P. Moore of the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit in New York. From 1989 to 1996, Mr. Platt was a partner in the international law firm of Akin, Gump, Strauss, Hauer & Feld, LLP, where he specialized in international economic and trade policy matters. In addition, from 1981 to 1983, Mr. Platt was an associate in the Corporate Finance Department of the First Boston Corporation.

Mr. Platt received his A.B. cum laude from Bowdoin College. As a Rotary International Fellow, he studied international relations at the Institut Universitaire de Hautes Etudes Internationales in Geneva, Switzerland. He received his J.D. in 1980 from the Columbia University School of Law. He is the former Chairman of the Carnegie Council for Ethics in International Affairs in New York City and serves as Vice Chairman of the Chapter (Board of Trustees) of the Washington National Cathedral. Mr. Platt is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations and a member of the District of Columbia and New York Bars.

E-mail: aplatt@ProjectsInternational.com